THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY,

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, bas reached its Twenty-third Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information, it iscludes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethaology, Folkloro, Geography, History Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, med Social Mant ers and Cuclams, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Monwood, Pihet, and the For East generally. Recently a new docarriers, has been taken, and the Barga now ives impers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the 'scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally

The Review department receives special attention, and ondeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying acriches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested forforward works to 'Editor, China Review, care of China

Mail Office. The Notes and Queries are still continued and one an important means of obtaining. from and diffaring among amoretts knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various Original contributions in Chinese, Latin or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hengkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors, are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Brotschneider, and Hirth, Professor Logger and Messra Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor, -all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

No matter how little food I took-even a mornel-it gave me grust pain at the chest and sides; and sometimes it would dark through to my back between the eboulders.

often I would be alok, and heave and strain until I was quite sore. Then, again, a pain would take me in the stomach and cut through me like a knife. I had a dry, hacking cough, which never left mo, and I sweat terribly at night. The cough was so bad that I often had to held my sides when I had spells of it.

" Nearly every bit of flesh went off my hones and I get so weak I couldn't put my foot to the ground. People said I was in a consumption, and I had little hope of getting better. - I was no nervous that the least noise would startle and upset me. Those who called said it was pitiable to see the condition I was in.

. I saw two doctors who gave me medicines, but I only got worse and worse. At the end of October (1893) I came by a small book telling about Mother Seigel's Curative Syruft, and not knowlny what else to do, I sent to Mr. Baxter, the druggist, Brookhouse, and got a bottle. THE FIGHTING AT SANTIAGO. FIGHTING ON LAND AND SEA. London, July 11-A general assault upon Santiago by land and sea bogan at seven o'clock this morning.

While Admiral Sampson's squadron engaged the forts at the entrance to the herbour, General Lawton's division attacked the north-eastern side of the tity occupying the anburb of Cabano. The engagement soon became general. American army, flumbering about seventeen thousand men, are using balloons to ascortain the positions of the enemy whose fire is unable to touch the balloons.

Four American warships Yesterday bombarded Manzanillo, but were received with CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA, s hot fire and compelled to retire, one ship being disabled July 2. The fighting at Santiago lasted until sundown yesterday, when General Lawton had occupied Caney and the other American forces had carried the outworks of the city. The American losses are estimated at hotiveen four and five hundred, mostly wounded. Later. - Only fragmentary accounts from American sources have yet been received of the battle at Santiago. The American losses in the fighting on Friday are believed to be upwards of one thousand. sident McKinley has received an unofficial tologram that the battle was resumed on Saturday and continued all day. Six light batteries with four thousand men are on their way to Santiago to reinforce General Shafter's troops. The American General Chaffee was 1.27 wounded on Sunday during some outpost firing near Santiago.

General Shafter confirms the report of the arrival of six thousand Spanish reinforcements at Santiaco.

THE TRUTH REVEALED, July 6.—The Spanish Government has gradually broken the news of the disaster to Admiral Cervera's fleet. The Cabinet at a meeting yesterday evening decided to continue the war at all costs as long as Spanish soldier remained in Cuba.

Telegrams from Madrid state there is a disorderly spirit among the military and crowds in the city are becoming riotous and the population are arming.

A WORD TO MOTHERS.

You do not always know the real cause of emaciated tendencies of your babies, or just why your children are thin and pale. You donot need to. What you want is a cure for whatever ails them.

Scott's Emulsion

is endorsed by the whole medical profession as an ideal nourishment during growth. It contains the essential elements for increasing vitality, giving flesh, and making solid bones. It cures Rickets, Marasmus, and all Wasting Diseases, and makes the children robust strong, and rosy. Prepared by SCOTT & SOWNE, Limited, Lendon. Alt Chemists.

The Japanese cruiser Akitsuhima (Captain Saito), which left Manila on July 19, arrived to-day with mails. The disembarkation of the troops was preceeding when the cruiser left, and the U.S.S. Boston had anchored off the Sapote River, close to the City of Manila, to cover the landing of the American troops on that side of the bay. It is not expected that the general assault upon the city will take place until the arrival of General Merritt with the third convoy of transports. There some slight signs of trouble browing between the American military- authorities and General Aguinaldo. We publish below letters from our correspondents.

A CAREFUL GUIDE. AMERICAN MOVE TO THE FRONT (From Our Special Correspondent with the U.S. Army.)

U.S. Army Hendquarters, CAVITE, July 18.

Yesterday, the let Battalion of the Is Californian Volunteers received orders to transfer their quarters from Cavite Arsenal to the town of Parafiaque, on the opposite shore, and early this morning the men-350 in all-under the command of Lieut, Colonel Duboce were taken over in coscoes or lighters to Bacoor, whence they tagena, U. S. of Columbia, to enforce the will have to march into Paranaque. This is the first forward move since the arrival of the American troops, and the Californions are pleased at the prospect of seeing some fighting. Not that they themselves are likely to get into action for some time, but they will be behind the robel lines, and may have an opportunity of seeing a skirmish with the advanced outposts of the Spanish garrison.

> Along with two brother journalists, made a trip yesterday to the rebel entrenchments outside Mulate. We crossed to Bacoor by boat, and had a painful ride in a caramata, or native carriage, to Passy, from which point we advanced on foot.

The journey has already been described in detail. It is therefore unnecessary to recapitulate, as there was no fresh incident on the way worthy of notice. At Passy, the commanding officer of the insurgen army General Norial beving gone to attend a Council of war at Paranhad instructions not to allow to expose ourselves to Spanish sharpshooters, Behind the rebel position we found numerous deserted trenchos, abandoned by the Spaniards as they were gradually driven into the city by the insurrectoes. "At the point on the road held by the rebels, there was a heavy our bankment or earthwork, preventing further advance in that direction and acting as a substantial shelter from the rapid-firing feet will be to prepare students in the guns with which the Spaniards sweep the position. All along the road, the trees were nitted by the bullets, and the only shelter we had from the heat of the noon day sun was the heavy branches of the broken trees. Leaving the roadway, we advanced slong the pathways of the fields to the left, stopping finally at the second line of entrepenments. beyond which our encort refused to let us budge. The leader told us he had his instructions, and he was not going to be disgraced by loaing any of us. It did not matter if he were shot. He was only an insurrecto, and it was his business to expose himself to the Spanish fire; but if he allowed any of us to draw fire and to be wounded or killed, he would be disgraced in the eyes of his colonel. A proposal to climb a tree and recomposite the Spanish position through our field-plasses was also negatived, as was the proposition to get into the first line of entrenchments. Here the position was open, and out white sun hats and light summer clothing would probably have been sighted by the Spanish riflemen, but we were willing to run the risk to get into the front trench. All our cophistrice availed nothing. Our leader represented plausibly enough that even if we escaped (which was very probable, in my opinion) | wickets Mr Ferdinand Hecht and Mr Hermann or impure, directates through the organs of the some one behind us might be hit. Howeven he yielded to us so far as to silow us spreads disease on its course. In cases of Suo to use down to the beach, about a mile (or less) from the Malata Fort, still cocupied by the Spanish garrison. As we crept from pover to cover a couple of shots were fired, where at in 9d. per bottle. Bewate of worth- and one of our party promptly flattened himself out on the ground. Only a few shots were fired whilst we were out, and thisk of them were back in the interior and none directed, against us. men, fully armed with Mauser rifles and bayonets, going from point to point; and we were informed that a hig battle was being planned for Sunday. The rabels complained that, whenever they make a forward movement, Admiral Dowey turns upon them the search-lights of his vessels and we were asked to tell the Admiral to turn the lights on the Spaniards but not in the insurgents. The road along which the main advance occurs, is less than 100 yards from the sea. A powerful search-light, therefore, shows up every movement, and it is easy to understand how the light helps for retards the fighting line. When we returned to camp General Anderson was duly informed of the rebel request. While in the trench, our guide emilained to us the rebel method of cartridges between the fingers of the left hand, and as he dashes from cover to cover of the heavy night firing, and learned that General Aguinaldo had issued orders not wasto ammunition in useless kirmishing but to receive the Spaniands with the of the trenches.

On our journey to the front we passed picturesque crowd of female mourners, and route saw Spanish and rebel wounded. Spanish prisoners are receiving very kind treatment from the rebels. In this respect roused by the sound of field guns on the Mauila side, and from the roof of the Arsenal watched a duel between the rebels and the Spaniards in Malate Fort. After a few exchanges, firing ceased, CAVITA, July 16. I hear that the rebel commander-in-chie has despatched an expedition of 1000 men to Camerinas, where the Spaniards are said to have a strong force. There has been heavy fighting again around Manila, the rebels evidently attacking the outlying Spanish positions at Tondo on the north sea-front, at Malate on the south sea-front, and in the suburbs behind the city. I judge that an attempt is being made to outflank the defenders of the Malate Fort and Powder Magazine It is certain that the rebels will make no sdvance on the south side until they have captured the Malate position.

THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

From the foundation of Manila in 1571 up to the year 1819, the Colony of the Philippine Islands was a dependency of Mexico. During that long period there was absolutely no direct intercourse between the mother country and her Far Eastern Colony. Everybody and everything de there are six provincial bishopries. The atined to the Philippines passed through Mexico until that American Colony throw Noon.-English Mail Steamer-leaves for off the Spanish yoke. Thenceforth, for beyond all control of the civil government. 51 years, communication with Spain was via the Cape of Good Hope commercial thistory of the Philippines would be too long to relate here in extense between the colonists who sought liberty to trade freely with Mexico and China and the Spanish King and his Councillors and the trading community in Spain who persistently determined to curtail that freedom as much as possible. The policy of the Spanish merchant class was to hold Maxico as their exclusive market.

> They opposed Philippine traffic with China because this necessitated silver del-Mexico surreptitiously if the Islanders were not openly permitted to give goods in exchange. The famous galleons, which were so frequently intercepted and seized by British privateers from the days of our Queen Elizabeth onwards, formed the only connection between Mexico (Acapulco) and Manila. The regulations for shipping were, however, so restrictive that only the favorites, of the authorities ever secured a chance. The arrival of the galleon in Manila Bay was the event of the season or the year. For the Europeans it was a sort of Robinson Crusoe life, with additional possible dangers. The ferecious (at times bloody) contentions between Church and State authorities were strugh to obliterate ever had or might-have had amongst the natives. The galleon usually brought, together with the Mexican dollars. fresh restrictive royal decrees and conditions of men; friars who had to relate how they had saved the ship from total I saw thom, prior to this occasion, I was wreck by an appeal to the Virgin; a mob of notaries who had bought their offices in public auction in the City of Mozico; some my disposal. One Gov. General Bustamente broke out. Finally they succeeded in having appointed a Governor General after their own hearts, Camilo Polavieja, through whom they had the Dr Rizal above mentioned executed in Manila in January last year. In 1872 there was some discontent amongst the secular native clergy because the monks persisted in holding the incumbencies, notwithstanding their own rules of community and the Council of Trent decree which prohibit it. The friers, therefore, determined to nip this native ambition in the bud. They instigated a little revolt of the troops at Cavite and attributed the plot to the native clergy. Four native priests fell victims to the intrigue and were publicly executed. Then, following up the competent to hold incumbencies. At the same time several of the best families of Manila were banished and despoiled of their property. I am personally acquainted with two of these victims : one resides in Hongkong and the other has his office now, and for years past, in Billiter Street, London Manile is an archbishopric, and total number of parishes would be about 620, of which the friare hold about 95 per cent. As parish priest the Spanish frier is

He can neither sue nor be sued. He is quite independent of all state authority. He may prove to be the vilest criminal with all impunity. His superiors would pretend to punish him, but they would never expel him; they are themselves sheep suffice to say that it is a series of struggles who protect their own lambs. He acts, however, as voluntary (and very willing) government agent. He meddles in every public affair of the township by recognized right. If he cannot have things all his own way and influence every public act, from the election of native headman downwards, he singles out for revenge all those who have outvoted him. And this is generally what happens, at one time or another, in half the parishes. If a young man, who has been educated in Manila or Hongkong, returns to his native town with somewhat advanced ideas, or merely salutes the priest as a gentleman, instead of kisslars which they knew must come from ing his hand as his spiritual father, he too is marked for social rum one day. The father of a family of attractive daughters has also to be careful lest the charms of his offspring bring about his own fall. In short, in one way or another, the native who possesses anything worth having has either to yeld to the averice, lust or insolence of the Spanish priest or risk losing his liberty and position in life. The parish priest has simply to address what is called an oficio (official advice) to the Governor of the province who remits it to the Governor General, stating that he has reason to believe that the individuals mentioned in the margin are persons of doubtful morality, or conspirators, or disloyal, or whatever he may phoose to dub them and recommend their removal from his parish. In due course a couple of civil guards will suddenly ap-Without warrant or explanation of any kind further than 'by order of the Governor' all the merial prestige which the Spaniards he is marched off to the capital town and cast into prison.
